

Become a Living Wage Certified Congregation!

Paying employees a living wage is a moral imperative. Living Wage Virginia connects values-aligned businesses, consumers, congregations, and patrons to make Virginia a place where all people can thrive.

To qualify as a certified Living Wage employer:

- Everyone employed by your congregation must be paid the living wage for your area (see our website for details). This includes part-time and full-time staff, as well as contracted workers such as cleaners or landscapers.

Can you make a commitment to living wages?

Apply today!
